⇒ An art affair

International art fair Fine Art Asia returns this week! On display are artworks spanning 5,000 years of cultural history, from ancient Chinese bronzes to contemporary art. The focus will be on Hong Kong's excellent art and antique galleries, as well as its outstanding art institutions. Some of these include Rasti Chinese Art, which will present a large lacquered and gessoed camphor wood head of a guardian, Dvarapala, dating around the Ming dynasty.

Rossi & Rossi will exhibit Chinese and Himalayan works of art, while Maria Kiang

Chinese Art will showcase exquisite scholars' objects. On the other hand, Alisan Fine Arts will exhibit "Landscapes Through Time," featuring works from eight Chinese artists that hark back to the past, with scenes of bygone eras both mythical and real. In contrast, Tanya Baxter Contemporary highlights modern and contemporary British art with works by Damien Hirst and David Hockney. Click here to purchase tickets!

When: 5 to 8 October

Where: Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre, 1 Expo Drive, Wan Chai
